Grant Information Resource Center (GIRC). The Grant Information Resource Center (GIRC) registration form is now live on OPGS' website. The GIRC provides technical assistance and information about resources that improve community services in the District of Columbia for its "customers" - District government, nonprofit, and faith-based representatives. The primary focus is to assist customers who either lack computer access or the knowledge to best use their existing computer technology to strengthen their organizations. The GIRC is open Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, 10 a.m.-12 p.m. and 2 p.m.-4 p.m., by appointment only. For additional information call 202-727-8900. Please click here to schedule an appointment.

Funding Alert: If you would like to post a free event/resource announcement in the Funding Alert, contact Pat Henry at pat.henry@dc.gov. All back issues of the funding alert can be found at www.opgs.dc.gov.

District Grants Clearinghouse: District agency grant opportunities are listed in the Funding Alert. These opportunities can be found on the Office of Partnerships and Grant Services website at www.opgs.dc.gov. All information that should be posted to the Clearinghouse should be sent to dcgrants@dc.gov.

State Single Point of Contact (SPOC): The Office of Partnerships and Grant Services is the DC SPOC. The application is available online on OPGS's website at www.opgs.dc.gov select State Single Point of Contact. If you need additional information call Pat Henry at (202) 727-0946.

Urban Farm Environmental Public Art Project. The DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (DCCAH) in partnership with the University of the District of Columbia (UDC) and the Urban Waters Federal Partnership (UWFP) is seeking qualifications from artists or artist teams for a public art project that will result in an environmentally-focused sculpture in a new urban farm to be created in the Washington, DC neighborhood of Capitol View (Ward 7). This RFQ is open to all professional artists/artist teams over the age of 18 located in the United States. Applicants with previous work experience in creating environmentally focused public art are preferable. Deadline for submissions is June 10. For questions contact the Elizabeth Carriger, Public Art Coordinator, elizabeth.carriger@dc.gov, 202-724-5613 or Tonya Jordan, Public Art Manager, tonya.jordan@dc.gov, 202-724-5613. For a copy of the application visit dcarts.dc.gov.

Monroe E. Trout Premier Cares Award. The Monroe E. Trout Premier Cares Award was established to recognize exemplary programs that have made health services more accessible to a specific medically underserved population. The award honors innovative programs that support people excluded from or underserved by the mainstream health delivery system, including farm workers, homeless children, pregnant teens, low-income mothers and infants, and individuals who don't have the strength or means to reach a clinic or hospital. The winning program must be able to show measurable benefits/outcomes covering a full two-year span and must be capable of being replicated. The Premier Cares Award is not a grant for future work, rather it is a recognition award for work already accomplished in the past. The award winner receives $100,000 and the other five finalists receive $24,000 each. The entry deadline is July 31, 2015. For more information visit Award Information

Community-Based Organizations Grants Management Conference. The Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE), Office of Grants Management and Compliance (OGMC), will host its annual CBO Grants Management Conference that offers Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) the opportunity for continuous learning about local grant funding availabilities while assisting families and communities with practical resources. Most importantly, the conference will provide CBOs with information on how to best meet the needs of District of Columbia students while improving their educational outcomes. The conference is being held on June 16, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Kellogg Hotel and Conference Center on the Campus of Gallaudet University, 800 Florida Avenue, NE. For additional information contact Angela Clemons, angela.clemons@dc.gov. To register visit CBO Grants Management Conference.

Call for Advisory Review Panelists for the FY16 Grant Season. DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities (DCCAH) is seeking advisory review panelists for their FY16 grant season. Panelists will review applications, provide comments, and score applications in order to recommend recipients of DCCAH grant awards. Residents of the District of Columbia metropolitan area are encouraged to nominate themselves or their peers to serve as a panelist. Selected panelists will demonstrate expertise through involvement in one or more sectors of the creative economy in the District for a minimum of two years. Individuals with arts and humanities backgrounds make the strongest candidates (i.e. artists, arts administrators, arts educators, gallery professionals, curators, art critics, etc.) The DCCAH supports panel diversity in all forms: age, race, gender, disabilities, sexual orientation, artistic discipline, location, etc. To submit your letter of interest and resume, email Steven Mazzola at steven.mazzola@dc.gov or call 202-724-5613. Deadline June 15.

Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) Ward-by-Ward Check-In Community Meeting Series. The D.C. Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) is conducting a three month community meeting series in all eight wards. These meetings are designed to seek feedback and suggestions from community members to help shape the future of affordable housing throughout the District. Additionally, the agency seeks to inform residents, business owners, and other community members of the agency's programs and services, current and future projects, and the Fiscal year (FY) 2016 affordable housing budget. To register and for more information visit <http://dhcd.dc.gov/node/1044362>

The Home Depot Foundation: Community Impact Grants Program. The Home Depot Foundation Community Impact Grants Program provides support to nonprofit organizations and public service agencies that are using the power of volunteers to improve the physical health of their communities. Proposals for the following community improvement activities will be considered: repairs, refurbishments, and modifications to low-income and/or transitional veteran's housing or community facilities (schools, community centers, senior centers, etc.);
